

2023 HBCU SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Southwest Georgia Farm Credit is proud to serve farmers, farm businesses and people who live and work in the small towns and communities in southwest Georgia. Agriculture is a way of life here, and for over 100 years, Farm Credit has played an important role in providing a safe, sound, reliable source of credit to rural America.

To help ensure a bright future for rural communities, as well as the agricultural industry, Southwest Georgia Farm Credit presents several scholarship opportunities. This year, the Association will offer three $1,000 scholarships, and one $2,000 HBCU scholarship.

Selection Criteria

Applicant must be a high school senior. Directors and employees of Southwest Georgia Farm Credit, and their immediate family members, are not eligible. "Family" is defined as: "An individual and spouse and anyone having the following relationship to either: parents, spouse, son, daughter, sibling, stepparent, stepson, stepdaughter, stepbrother, stepsister, half-brother, half-sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, grandparent, grandson, granddaughter, and the spouses of the foregoing."

Applicants must plan to attend a two or four-year HCBU college on a full-time basis. Students must be pursuing a career path in agriculture sciences, animal biology, chemistry, business, accounting, finance, communications, etc. with an interest in a career that is essential to sustaining infrastructure in our small towns and communities.

Selection will be based on the applicant's record of scholastic achievement and extracurricular activities. Scholarships are not renewable.

Selection of recipients will be the responsibility of Southwest Georgia Farm Credit.

Application form must be accompanied by the following:

- A high school transcript, showing GPA and class rank.
- Two letters of recommendation from someone other than an immediate family member.
- A two-page, single-spaced essay, "My hopes and dreams for rural America."

Must indicate that student's primary residence is within the Association's 21-county territory: Baker, Calhoun, Chattahoochee, Clay, Decatur, Dougherty, Early, Grady, Lee, Marion, Miller Mitchell, Quitman, Randolph, Schley, Seminole, Stewart, Sumter, Terrell, Thomas, Webster
